Annexure-A

Scope of Work for Maintenance of UPS:

Objective: The primary objective of this RFP is to establish a contract with a reputable vendor who can provide comprehensive maintenance and support services for our small UPS systems. The vendor is expected to ensure the reliability, availability, and performance of these systems to safeguard our operations against power interruptions.

Scope of Work: The selected vendor shall provide the following services for our small UPS systems:

1. Preventive Maintenance: Regularly scheduled (twice a month in Kabul and Quarterly in Provinces) inspections, testing, cleaning, and calibration of UPS systems to proactively identify and address potential issues before they become critical.
2. Corrective Maintenance: Prompt response and resolution of UPS system failures or issues to minimize downtime. This includes replacement of faulty components and 24/7 technical support.
 - A. Component Replacement: Replace faulty components, including batteries, capacitors, inverters, and rectifiers, with genuine manufacturer-approved parts.
 - B. Battery Replacement: Regularly assess the health of UPS batteries and replace them as needed to ensure reliable backup power.
 - C. Wiring: Standard wiring (separate circuit) for all sizes (1KV to 10KV) with required power cable 2.5mm and installation of wall sockets.
3. Emergency Response: A dedicated emergency hotline and On-Call technician are available for urgent situations requiring immediate attention.

4. Spare Parts Management: Maintain a stock of critical spare parts and components for rapid replacement when needed.
5. Firmware and Software Updates: Ensure UPS systems are running the latest firmware and software versions to optimize performance and security.
6. Performance Monitoring: Implement continuous monitoring and reporting of UPS system performance, including power usage, efficiency, and battery health.
7. Service Reports: Submit detailed service reports after each maintenance visit, including a list of tasks performed, findings, and recommendations for improvements.
8. Geographical Coverage: Ensure that maintenance and support services are provided in Kabul and other Provinces (List of locations are attached) as specified in the contract.
9. Warranty: Provide a comprehensive warranty for all maintenance work performed, including parts and labor
10. Documentation Maintenance: Maintain up-to-date records of all UPS systems, including serial numbers, configurations, and maintenance history.

Technical Specifications: The small UPS systems covered under this contract have capacities ranging from 2KW to 10KW and may include various models and brands. Detailed technical specifications will be provided to shortlisted vendors upon request.

1	Service of UPS	1 And, On-Call Ad-hoc base Service

Part-3 All UPS Spare Parts List:

S.N	Description	QTY	Unit Price AFN
1	Batteries: Battery packs or individual battery cells: Batteries are a critical component in a UPS, and they have a limited lifespan. Having spare batteries or battery packs is essential.	1
2	Fans: Cooling fans: Fans help dissipate heat generated by the UPS. Spare fans are important in case of fan failure, as overheating can damage the UPS.	1
3	Internal Fuses:	1

	Fuses protect the UPS from electrical faults. Keep spare fuses of the appropriate type and rating on hand.
4	Capacitors: Capacitors store electrical energy and are vital for stabilizing the output power. Capacitor failure can lead to power quality issues. Having spares can help reduce downtime.	1
5	Control Boards: Main control and logic boards: These control the operation of the UPS. Having spare control boards can be crucial in case of a failure.	1
6	Power Modules/Inverter Modules: These are responsible for converting DC power from the batteries to AC power. Keeping spare power modules can be essential for high-capacity UPS systems.	1
7	Communication Cards: Network cards, SNMP cards, or other communication modules allow remote monitoring and control of the UPS. Spare communication cards can help maintain connectivity.	1
8	Display/Interface Panels: LCD displays or interface panels are used for monitoring and configuring the UPS. Having spares ensures continued access to important information.	1
9	Fans and Air Filters: In addition to internal fans, external air filters can get clogged over time. Replacing them with spares can help maintain airflow and prevent overheating.	1
10	Replacement Wiring and Connectors: Spare wiring, connectors, and terminal blocks can be useful for making quick repairs and replacements in case of damaged or faulty connections.	1
11	Replacement Transformers:	1

	Transformers can fail, and having spare transformers of the appropriate type and rating can be essential for some UPS systems.
13	Battery 20-amp for Chines UPS 20x20Amp Battert pack for K-Star UPS	1
14	Battery 40-amp for Chines UPS 20x40Amp Battert pack for K-Star UPS	1
